Sir,

Re Site for the construction of a Veterinary Dispensary at Tarikere

I have the honour to state that Government in their Order No A P 5192-5/A P 44-42-1 dated 17th March 1943 accepted the donation of Dr Mohamed Ghouse of Tarikere Town amounting to Rs 4000/- for the construction of a Veterinary Dispensary at Tarikere the same being named after his father It was also directed that steps may be taken to select a site for the purpose The Tarikere Municipal Council have resolved at their meeting held on 27-1-44 that the extent of land required for the construction of the dispensary as per plan enclosed may be granted free of cost This site is to the west of the existing cattle-pound and measures 198 ft x 84½ ft The Veterinary Dispensary is at present located in a building belonging to the Municipality which is not suitable for the purpose

I, therefore request that sanction of Government may be kindly obtained for the proposals of the Tarikere Municipal Council
